

Operational and Communications Toolkit for Ballot Issues

For election officials, it's important to quickly address any ballot delivery issues or content issues that may disrupt the voting process as they arise. This generic, nonpartisan resource includes operational response best practices as well as starter templates for social media, and news releases. These can be easily adapted for any election office, and provide a starting place for nonpartisan communication with voters about ballot issues. Keep in mind, these are just samples and guides. We encourage you to adapt them to your jurisdiction's needs and make them your own, and to consult your state, county, or city attorney where necessary.

Operational Response Template

This Operational Response Template outlines the steps that election officials can take to help ensure quick and comprehensive responses to ballot delivery or content issues as they arise. These guidelines are based on best practices, and are organized based on the situation and audience.

Planning Phase	Steps to Consider
Preparation (External)	Pre-established Communication Channels: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Ensure clear and quick communication lines with print vendors, postal services, local mail couriers, and other key stakeholders.</li><li>• Have direct contacts with key stakeholders, such as local media, community partners, and voters, to rapidly disseminate updates.</li></ul> Redundancy Plans: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Establish backup printing vendors or on-demand printing solutions in case of printing delays or errors; or in the event you have to reprint a large quantity in a pinch.</li><li>• Think through alternative ways to reach voters if need be: (e.g. courier services, drop-offs) if there are disruptions in regular postal services.</li></ul> Ballot Quality Control: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Conduct thorough pre-press checks, including proofing ballots for accuracy and compatibility with election technology (e.g., scanning systems).</li><li>• Implement a tracking system to verify that ballots are printed, packaged, and sent without issues. Consider having a member of your time to help with quality control.</li></ul> Real-time Monitoring &amp; Alerts: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Use tracking software to monitor each step of ballot printing and delivery, setting up alerts for delays or disruptions; or flag when ballot stock is low for a given ballot style.</li><li>• Have a response team ready to quickly troubleshoot and resolve any detected issues.</li></ul> Public Communication Strategy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Draft prepared statements for a range of scenarios (printing issues, delayed delivery, etc.) to update voters, media, and stakeholders transparently and promptly.</li><li>• Set up a dedicated voter hotline and/or online portal for affected voters to report and get real-time information on issues, even if it is after normal business hours.</li></ul> Mail &amp; Delivery Timing Adjustments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Factor in potential postal service delays and ensure contingency plans for getting ballots to voters on time, whether it is a one-off or mass ballot replacement.</li><li>• Coordinate with local stakeholders to navigate best contacts to provide guidance if significant delays could affect adherence to deadlines and/or voter participation.</li></ul>

Operational Response Template

This Operational Response Template outlines the steps that election officials can take to help ensure quick and comprehensive responses to ballot delivery or content issues as they arise. These guidelines are based on best practices, and are organized based on the situation and audience.

Planning Phase	Steps to Consider
	Emergency Distribution Plans: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Plan for expedited ballot distribution through alternative methods, such as additional in-person early voting locations or drive-through pickup for those unable to receive ballots on time.</li></ul> Post-Election Audit &amp; Feedback: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Include a plan for reviewing the response to any ballot-related issues after the election, collecting feedback from staff and stakeholders to refine future protocols.</li></ul>
Preparation (Internal)	Staff Training and Resource Allocation <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Comprehensive Training: Train all election staff on handling common ballot issues, including protocols for addressing ballot style issues, lost ballots, and late arrivals.</li><li>● Response Team: Work with your public engagement team so they are knowledgeable on your office's response plans, how to search information, and how to remedy issues calmly and swiftly.</li><li>● Resource Allocation: Ensure sufficient resources are available, including replacement ballots, expedited shipping options, and advanced tracking systems. Consider the use of "go teams" or trained staff from other areas that can help with replacement ballots.</li></ul> Voter Education and Communication Plan <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Informative Campaigns: Launch media and social media outreach efforts well ahead of the election to inform voters about how to check their registration status, how they can view a sample ballot (or even a customized sample ballot with the actual ballot content they will have an opportunity to vote on), when they should expect to receive their mail ballots, how they can communicate questions and concerns (even outside of normal business hours), and alternative voting options. For example, if you made a mistake and need a replacement ballot; if you believe you received the wrong ballot style, etc.</li><li>● Communication Channels: Utilize multiple communication channels, including social media, local news, and direct mail, to keep voters informed and prepared.</li><li>● Contact Information: Clearly communicate the contact information for voter assistance, including hotlines, emails, and websites.</li></ul> Engage with Postal Services and Vendors <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Postal Coordination: Work closely with postal services to ensure smooth ballot delivery.</li><li>● Expedited Shipping: Arrange for expedited shipping options for reissued or replacement ballots as the election date approaches to guarantee timely delivery.</li><li>● Vendor Partnerships: Connect with vendors to ensure they understand the importance of accuracy and timeliness in printing and distributing ballots.</li></ul> Contingency Planning <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Alternative Voting Options: Develop and publicize alternative voting methods, such as in-person voting or ballot drop-off locations, to mitigate potential ballot delivery issues.</li><li>● Crisis Management Plan: Create a crisis management plan outlining steps to take in case of widespread ballot issues, including communication strategies and escalation procedures.</li></ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Emergency Resources: Ensure availability of emergency resources, such as additional ballots and support staff, to handle unforeseen problems.</li></ul>
Navigating Ballot Issues	Voter Raises Concern with Ballot Style Issued (Missing/incorrect contest or candidate, redistricting issue has voter linked to a different district, etc) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Identify the Issue: Confirm if the voter has in fact been issued the appropriate ballot style by verifying the voter's current information in the registration system.<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>○ If yes - Educate the voter on their current district assignments, approved candidate, etc so they know the ballot they received was in fact correct</li><li>○ If no - Determine what the issue was and take corrective action to issue the voter the appropriate ballot style; and work with your team to determine if this was an isolated incident, or if it impacts other voters (i.e. district assignment issue affecting a portion of a precinct, etc).</li></ul></li><li>● Corrective Action: If voter has not already returned a completed ballot, Issue the correct ballot immediately (or offer alternate in-person voting opportunities) and provide clear instructions for returning/destroying the initial ballot as required by law. If the voter has already returned a completed ballot, educate voter on permissible options within state law (i.e. provisional ballot, going to vote in person before ballot is received by the local elections office, etc).</li><li>● Documentation: Record the incident, including the voter's information and the corrective action taken, in the central voter file.</li><li>● Follow-Up: Ensure the voter receives the appropriate ballot and has adequate time to return it before the election deadline; if issue impacts more than one voter, this may require drafting special messaging to let them know of the issue and remedy.</li></ul> Voter Made a Mistake Marking the Ballot <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Spoiled Ballot Procedure: Inform voter in-state process for spoiling the original ballot and replacement ballot if they spoil their original one.</li><li>● Clear Instructions: Provide easy-to-understand instructions on how to spoil a ballot as required in your state (e.g., writing "spoiled" across it or placing it in a specific envelope).</li><li>● Ensure the voter knows to return the spoiled ballot before receiving a new one (if applicable), and the number of total replacement ballots permitted in your state.</li><li>● New Ballot Issuance: Track requests for new ballots to ensure no double voting. Issue the replacement ballot quickly and provide clear deadlines for when it must be returned.</li><li>● Accessible Voter Assistance: Make information available on how to properly fill out and correct their ballot, if necessary. Ensure voters have access to a hotline, help desk, or a website where they can quickly get assistance if they're unsure of the process (perhaps even on your main homepage at the top of the page when mail ballots go out so it is easier to locate). Make information available on how to properly fill out and correct their ballot, if necessary.</li></ul> Voter's Ballot Never Arrived <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Verification: Confirm the voter's address and registration status. Check mailing records to identify any potential delivery issues.</li></ul>

This Operational Response Template outlines the steps that election officials can take to help ensure quick and comprehensive responses to ballot delivery or content issues as they arise. These guidelines are based on best practices, and are organized based on the situation and audience.

Planning Phase	Steps to Consider
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Resend Ballot: Issue a new ballot promptly and use expedited shipping (as available) if close to the election date.</li><li>● Documentation: Record the incident and actions taken. Track the re-sent ballot to ensure delivery.</li><li>● Follow-Up: Contact the voter to confirm receipt of the new ballot, particularly if the delivery time is outside of your standard benchmarks.</li></ul> Voter's Ballot Arrived Too Late to Mail Back <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Assessment: Determine the cause of the delay by reviewing mailing and delivery records.</li><li>● Immediate Action: Provide alternative voting options, such as in-person voting or dropping off the ballot at a designated location.</li><li>● Documentation: Record the incident and any solutions provided. Ensure all late ballots are accounted for.</li><li>● Follow-Up: Work with postal services to prevent future delays and improve ballot delivery times.</li></ul> There Is a Change in the Ballot (candidate/contest added, removed, or amended after ballots printed) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Immediate Communication: Notify voters, media, and key stakeholders of the ballot change through multiple channels (email, website, social media, mailers, etc.). Provide a clear explanation of what has changed, why, and how it affects the voter's choices. Reassure the public that the right to vote will not be infringed despite the last-minute change.</li><li>● Ballot Reprinting: Coordinate with the printing vendor to reprint ballots that reflect the changes. Ensure quality control to prevent errors during the reprinting process, and check that all relevant contests and candidates are accurately updated.</li><li>● Ballot Version Tracking: Track different versions of the ballot to ensure that the correct version is sent to voters, and maintain records of which version each voter receives. If multiple ballot versions are in circulation (e.g., some voters already received the original ballot), put safeguards in place to prevent confusion or double voting.</li><li>● Handling Ballots Already Sent Out: Issue replacement ballots to voters who have already received the original version, clearly indicating that their old ballot is no longer valid. Provide instructions for how to return the outdated ballot or ensure it is not counted.</li><li>● Extending Deadlines if Necessary: If ballot changes occur close to the election date, work with local authorities to extend voting deadlines or adjust the voting timeline to ensure that all voters can participate with the updated information.</li><li>● Public Education: Run an education campaign explaining the change and what actions voters need to take (e.g., whether they need to request a new ballot or return a spoiled ballot). Use FAQs, hotlines, and community forums to answer voter questions and address concerns about the change.</li><li>● Poll Worker Training: Ensure that poll workers are fully briefed on the changes and prepared to assist voters in person, especially if the change impacts the voting experience on Election Day.</li></ul>
